

Save the Date! June 3-4, 2010 - Washington, D.C.

Business Symposium for Chemicals Policy Reform

Business leaders are gathering in Washington, D.C., to develop strategies and initiatives for comprehensive reform of the 34 year old Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA). The Symposium will:

- identify the needs of downstream users of chemicals from TSCA reform,
- educate businesses on the opportunities comprehensive TSCA reform presents to downstream users of chemicals and
- build a community of business leaders who support comprehensive TSCA reform.

The gathering will culminate with visits to Capitol Hill and the administration.

Speakers include ...

Administrator Lisa P. Jackson, Environmental Protection Agency

Roger McFadden, Vice President, Staples

Jeffrey Hollender, Co-founder, Seventh Generation

Robin Guenther, Principal, Perkins+Will

Howard Williams, Vice President, Construction Specialties

Rachelle Wenger, Director, Public Policy & Community Advocacy, Catholic Healthcare West

For more information contact:

David Levine dlevine@asbcouncil.org

Mark Rossi - Mark@CleanProduction.org